Mr. George Gyrley,
Provincial Archivist,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Gyrley,

For the past several years I have been trying to locate certain wills or administrations in this county prior to 1858. The Surrogate Court in Kingston has nothing prior to the 1858's. They referred me to Brighton, where they have nothing prior to 1858. A Brighton they referred me to the Superior Court in Toronto. This I have not done, as the people there were unknown to me, but I did make up my mind to visit there in person. Recently, I decided to ask your advice in this matter, feeling confident that you could help me where all my longer ago. I shall relate my problem to show you what I am seeking.

A great, great grandparent, John Percy, died in this county prior to 1858, his will or date of death 1857. John Percy had a crown grant of a certain parcel of land in 1801. The next entry was in 1862 or 1863, when a mortgage was held on the lot. In addition, an explanation of no transfer from the original owner, considered that there must have been a will or administration which was not recorded. My problem is to locate the authority by which the change in ownership was made. What do you advise? Where are early wills to be found, if not in the county?

Thanking you for your interest in my problem.

Yours sincerely,

DEATHS AND FUNERALS 1931

JOSEPH LOTT PERCY

Mr. Joseph Lott Percy of Verona, one of the oldest residents of Frontenac County died Feb. 19th at the age of 96. Born in Camden Township in 1835, the son of Michael Ryan Percy, a veteran of the war of 1812, Mr. Percy was of U. E. Loyalist descent. In his youth he removed to Bellrock when that village was a flourishing lumbering centre. Seventy-one years ago he married Harriet Howe who survives him. At the decline of the lumbering business in that section Mr. Percy took up farming in the vicinity of Verona. About eighteen years ago he retired, and since then has lived a quiet life in the village of Verona, where he was well known and much respected. He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, one sister, Mrs. Edith Allen of Toronto, two sons, Eugene and Herbert of Verona, one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Burleigh of this city, eight grandchildren and seven great grand children.

Read The Whig For Nearly 60 Years

Mr. Joseph Percy of Verona is today receiving the congratulations of his many friends, this being the occasion of his 95th birthday. Mrs. Burleigh, Livingston Avenue is a daughter, while Mr. Percy has a sister, Mrs. C. Allen, High Park Avenue, Toronto, who has reached the age of 90 years.

Mr. Percy reads the Whig-Standard every night without the aid of glasses, and before the amalgamation of the two Kingston papers, was a reader of the British Whig for nearly sixty years.

PERCY—At Verona, Ontario, on Tuesday, April 21st, 1931, Harriet Percy, aged 86 years, widow of the late Joseph Percy.
Funeral from United Church, Verona, on Thursday, April 23rd at 2 o'clock.

WILLIAM EUGENE PERCY

William Eugene Percy died at his home near Verona on Monday, June 15th. He was the oldest son of Joseph Lott Percy and Harriet Howe, both of whom were of United Empire Loyalist descent. Fair Haven, N.Y., was his birthplace but when very young he moved to Verona and had lived in that community ever since.

As a young man he was an employee of the Michigan Central Railway at Lyons, N.Y., and later was employed by the Rathbun Company of Napanee as a riverman. By trade he was a baker and operated a shop at Verona prior to 1894 when he married Nettie Emma Grant and moved to his late residence.

Rev. Mr. White conducted the funeral service, which was held at deceased's home. During the service, Glyn Thomas, son-in-law of the deceased, sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go." The pall-bearers were brother members of the Canadian Order of Foresters of which Mr. Percy had been Chief Ranger for many years.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. V. R. D. Pue Mrs. Elliott McKnight and Mrs. Glyn Thomas, and one son, Grant. Mrs. W. Burleigh of Kingston is a sister and H. C. Percy of Verona is a brother.

PERCY—At Verona on Tuesday, December 6th, 1938, William Damon Percy, in his 73rd year.
Funeral will take place from his late residence to the United Church, Verona on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

MRS. W. E. PERCY

VERONA— This community was thrown into mourning on Saturday afternoon last when it became known that Mrs. Eugene Percy had passed away at her home near here, after an illness of several weeks. Her illness was not considered serious until quite recently when she suddenly collapsed. She was the daughter of the late Alexander Grant and Mary Ann Hutcheson and was born in Verona 65 years ago. She received her early education at Verona public school and Sydenham High School. Forty-three years ago she married Eugene Percy and had been a lifelong resident of the community. She was an outstanding worker in every department of church work and her labor in the cause of charity will live after her. Oct 21, 1938

Besides her sorrowing husband she is survived by one son, Grant at home, and three daughters, Mrs. V. R. D. Pue, Verona; Mrs. Elliott McKnight, Hamilton, and Mrs. Glyn Thomas of Detroit, Mich; also two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Amey, Buffalo, N.Y., and Mrs. Alfred Trousdale, Verona. Three children predeceased her several years ago. The largely attended funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at her late home and the service was conducted by Rev. G. L. Ralph of Perth, and Rev. R. J. Merriman of the circuit. There was a wealth of beautiful flowers and wreaths from the different church societies and her many friends which bore silent tribute to the high esteem in which she was held by a host of friends and relatives. She will be missed in church circles as well as in her home. The pall-bearers were Ross Burleigh, Kingston; Dr. H. C. Burleigh, Bath; Eldon Trousdale, Verona; V. R. D. Pue and Fred Trousdale, Verona. Her remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Verona United Church cemetery.

MRS. BLANCHE TAYLOR.
HUDSON.

The funeral of Mrs. Blanche Taylor Hudson, who died on December 31st, took place on January 2nd, at her home, 502 West Manlius street, East Syracuse. Rev. Isaac C. PIERCY—STARK

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Newmarket when Eleanor Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stark, became the bride of Mr. Frederic Eyerton Piercy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Piercy, Brookdale Ave., Toronto. Rev. A. E. Marshall officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white crepe-back satin with a lace-trimmed net veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Stark, who wore a gown of powder blue georgette, with biege hat and shoes and carried a bouquet of pink Richmond roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Raymond Piercy. Mr. Thos. Williams played the wedding march. During the signing of the register Miss Marjorie Stark, cousin of the bride, sang very sweetly "O Day of Golden Promise." After the reception the bride and groom left for a short honeymoon, the bride travelling in a gray ensemble with hat and shoes to match. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

If you believe that John Piercy was a land owner in "Little" York in 1781, we suggest you write Mr. Henry Young, York County Historical Society, York, for any information he may be able to procure. Mr. Young is a reliable researcher and would examine the church records and court records in that vicinity. Any proof you may have relative to John Piercy being in York County, we suggest you report to Mr. Young.

Dear Dr.Burleigh,

I shall be glad to see what I can find about your John Percy.

All N.H. vital records in existence were copied and filed here in Concord in 1905-6. While many records had disappeared very many were available . As they are filed by family for the state,checking is a simple matter. I shall check not only Percy but cast a critical eye upon all the possible variants, including the Pierces. Early record keepers could do some wonderful juggling with spelling,as you undoubtedly have discovered. The Ryan and Costello names will not offer so many possibilities of that sort.

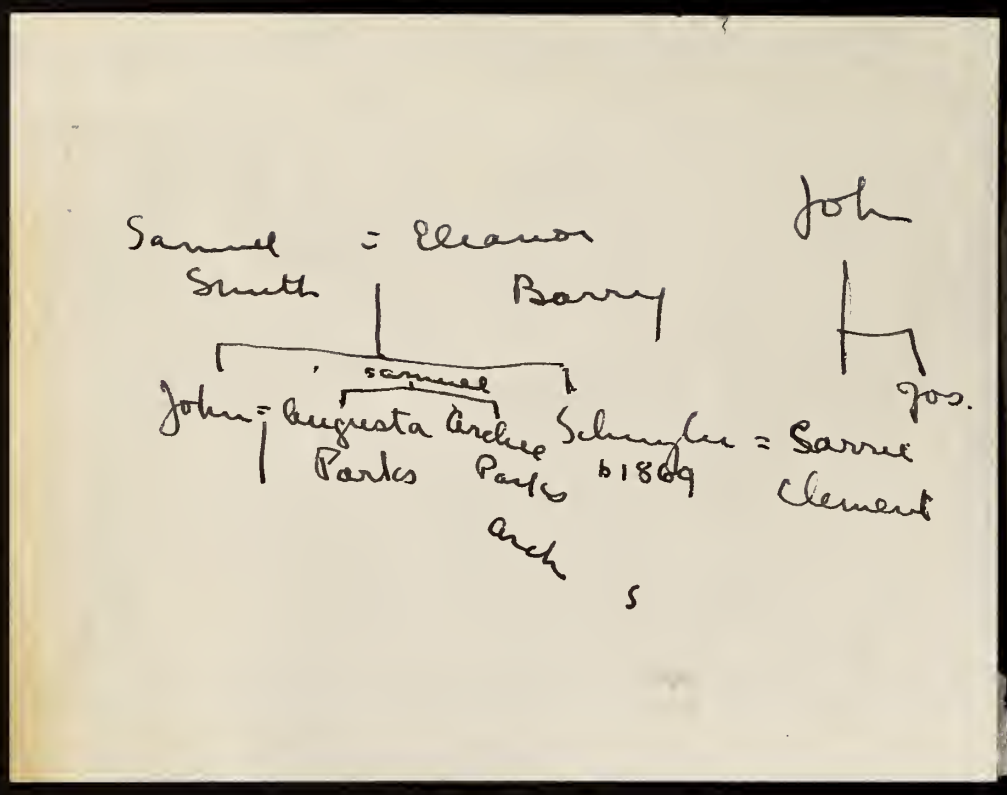

Beside vital records there are other sources,of course, such as land records , probates, town histories, etc. Our N.H. Hist.Soc. has many such. All deeds before 1772 are here and there is an excellent genealogical index of those.

If you can send me names of any of John Percy's brothers or sisters or of his children those may help. I will first check the V.R. and then report.

Sincerely yours,

Alice S. Thompson

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 27th instant, I may say that the bundles 15 (in the list of new claims) and 80, which contain the loyalist claims of John Piercy, have not been copied for the Public Archives of Canada. I believe that you may obtain the desired transcription from Dr. W. H. Biggar, Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London, England.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of December 14, which I find very interesting. You are probably right in thinking that John Piercy was in this county for only a short time, for there seems to be nothing whatever reported about him here. Notably, there are no deeds recorded in the name of Piercy between 1749 (the date of establishment of this county) and 1912. I have not searched later indexes.

I am especially interested because I have been collecting data on the York County loyalists for several years, and never came upon this man's name. I would like to add the data that you have on his claim to my files: what is the source of your information as to his claim? I find no mention of him in the index to the reports of the Ontario Bureau of Archives, and in looking over the Pennsylvania volumes of the American Loyalist Papers in the New York Public Library (which are transcripts from the Public Record Office in London) last winter I found no mention of his claim, at least made no note of it. However, my time was limited and the material was so extensive that I might easily have missed it.

I will be very grateful indeed for any further information that you may obtain concerning this man. Needless to say, if any data come to light here they will certainly be sent you. Perhaps I should mention that the fact that there are no deeds recorded in the name of John Piercy in York County is not conclusive proof that he did not own land here, for the laws of Pennsylvania do not absolutely require the recording of deeds, and prior to 1890 a goodly proportion were not recorded.

I note that you are president of the Bath Historical Society, and I am sending you under separate cover some of our publications for the Society's files.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of April 2nd, we would say that under an Order-in-Council dated 25th February, 1812, John Percy, the younger, of township of Ernesttown, was allowed 200 acres of land as a son of John Percy, the elder, a U. E. Loyalist. The location of the land was lot 17, concession 4, township of Burgess.

We have no specific reports dealing with the townships of Kingston, Ernesttown, Fredericksburg and Adolphustown. We have published some of the land books as reports of the department and shall send you copies to go with the Paterson book which you received.

With reference to your letter of April 9th, we would say that our information shows us that Frank Norton died at his residence, 63 McCaul Street, on Saturday, 1st March, of congestion of the lungs, aged 54 years. For information concerning his work in the civil service of Canada, a letter to the Public Archives at Ottawa might get you the information you need. For his military record you will have to write to the Public Record Office, London, England.

Yours very truly,

James J. Talman.

PIERCY or PERCY of Ernesttown.

JOHN PIERCY, one of the early settlers to arrive in what is now Ontario. Of his origin and ancestry there is some doubt. It has been variously stated by his grandchildren to have been England, Belfast, Ireland, Wexford county, Ireland, Wicklow county, Ireland and the New England States. Needless to say, however the name Piercy is English and there are still numerous families of that name in England to-day. His grandson, Joseph Lott Percy of Verona states that his grandparents came from county Wicklow, Ireland. This may be partly true as Katherine, the grandmother, was certainly Irish. If John Piercy was not Irish where did he meet his wife? A possible answer may be found in the United Empire Loyalist List where is found the following items--

1. Castiller, Lawrence
2. Costelow, James --- Soldier, Loyal Rangers, died in 1782.
3. Percy, John Ernesttown Soldier, Loyal Rangers---A. McL.
4. Piercy, John a wife and two children. Provisioned at Cataraqui.

In explanation it may be said that John Piercy's wife was Katherine Ryan widow of James Costello. The name Costello is Irish and the pronunciation as given by descendants gives the final o a long sound as in low. It will thus be seen that the two Costello men mentioned above have the same pronunciation of the name. It might be mentioned further that the widow Costello brought with her at marriage to Piercy two or three children among whom was one, James. All this with the fact that there was also a John Piercy in the Loyal Rangers would very easily point to an American origin for this John Piercy. Imagination can very well follow John Piercy from ~~England~~ Ireland to America where he becomes embroiled in the Revolution. His recent emigration from the Old Land would make him a staunch Loyalist and so we would find him enlisting in a Loyalist Regiment. So it would be easy to find him a member of the Loyal Rangers with James Costello as a comrade-at-arms. In 1782 James dies and leaves a widow who later becomes the wife of John and with him and her children they emigrate to Canada.

Among the State Papers and records of New Hampshire are the following records--

1. Richard Bourke Piercy, Doctor to 29th Regt. of Foot in the Town of Peterboro. State Papers N. H. Vol. XXX.
2. Michael Ryan married Elizabeth, widow of Joseph Burnham after 1798 History of Durham, N. H.
3. John Piercy, pte, member of Capt. John Heron's Co., Col. Hazen's Regt. (General Orders, Sept. 8, 1778). N. H. State Papers No. 17.
4. Peter Percy Sandown Town, Rockingham Co., Rockingham.
   1 male over 16. 1 male under 16. 2 females.
5. Charles Percy Sandown Town, Rockingham County.
   1 male over 16. 3 males under 16. 5 females.
6. John Costalow [illegible] Effingham Town Strafford Co. 2 males over 16 0 males under 16 2 females 1 slave.
7. Michael Ryan Durham Town Strafford County.
   2 males over 16 3 males under 16 3 females.
   4,5,6 & 7 taken from Heads of Families N. H., 1790

These items show the presence of Ryans Piercys Percys and Costalows living near one another in New Hampshire. From such a community may have come the family we are dealing with.

Another aspect of interest is that Katherine Ryan had a brother, Michael, who was a Catholic priest. It came to his ears some years after Katherine's second marriage that she and her husband were bringing the children, both Costello and Piercy, up to be Protestants. Famile tradition has it that he came to Canada on this account and when he accosted them about this breach of faith he was kicked out by his brother-in-law. Michael was then said to have gone to the Irish Catholic Settlement north of Newburg, Ont.

John Piercy with his wife , children and stepchildren arrived at Quebec in 1795 and four hours after their second son, Michael Ryan, was born. After a short sojourn here they travelled on up the St. Lawrence River Valley finally settling in Ernesttown Township of the present County of Lennox & Addington. Family tradition says that their first home was south of Napanee and west of Bath. John and Michael, his two sons received grants of land from the Crown in the second concession of Ernesttown which seems to have been the original home of the family. The following is a copy of the records in the Registry of the County of Lennox & Addington--

1. John Pearcy grant from the Crown May 5, 1823 of lot 3, conc. 2 E½ of W½.
   Deed to Sheldon Hawley Oct. 18, 1827.
2. Michael Pearcy grant from the Crown Dec. 23, 1823 lot 3, conc. 2 W½.

There is a considerable lapse of time between the arrival of the family and the grants from the Crown. This does not necessarily signify that this land was not occupied because in spite of the fact that land was given to the Loyalists in 1784 and later, there were no deeds given them until 1800 or later. Another point in favor of this lot as the first home of the family is that practically all the children married inhabitants of the neighboring township, Fredericksburg which was less than a mile distant.

Little else is known about John I except that he died in 1811 when his son Michael Ryan Piercy was 16 years of age.

His wife, Katherine Ryan Piercy, widow of James Costello, survived him. She lived on a part of the first property and was accidentally killed in a very tragic manner about 1820. This unfortunate happening is illustrative of the times.

It was the custom of the people of that section of the country to make regular trips to the market at Kingston for the purpose of selling the produce of their gardens. These trips were made over the rough roads of the pioneers and speed was hard to obtain. Such a journey meant spending the night at an Inn near Kingston so as to be at the Market at an early hour. The return trip was made in the afternoon of the market day and it was often midnight before home was reached.

On such a trip Katherine set out accompanied by her grandson, Michael Richardson, a boy of 15 or 16. At the Five Mile House, a popular Inn of that time they stopped to rest and water the horses. At the same time she sent Michael in to enquire if they could obtain lodgings for the night. He returned with an answer in the affirmative but she refused to stay, and hurried on the way toward Kingston. The reason she gave was that she had seen a coffin and candles under the Inn shed. They passed the night at an Inn nearer the Market and the next norning reached the market uneventfully. On the return trip they stopped at the Five Mile House to rest and water the horses as before. Michael removed the bridles, and as the horses were drinking he started to operate the pump. The horses became scared and turned sharply to bolt. This upset the wagon and threw Katherine and the load to the ground. A barrel of salt rolled on her and she died shortly after.

Katherine Ryan, by her marriage with James Costello, had three or four children. Of these the following are known--

1. James Costello who came to Canada with his father-in-law, John Piercy.
   He married and had a son Charles
   Charles who married a daughter of Joseph Brown who lived in the Brown settlement north of Moscow on the road to Enterprise. This Brown family were Quakers.
   He is said to have had four daughters and a son.
   1. ----- married Dan Richardson.
   2. ----- married a Dryden and later a Vankoughnet.
   3. Ann married Thomas Dryden. She was born Feb. 25, 1834 & died Dec. 10, 1879 aged 44 years, 9 months & 15 days. She is buried in Bethany-Racdonald Cemetery in Fredericksburg. The following children are buried with her
      1. Martha A died Aug. 9, 1869 aged 21 days.
      2. Ida E. died Aug. 9, 1871, aged 9 months.

4. ------ a daughter of whom nothing is known.
5. James.

His property was divided among his four daughters so it is safe to assume that his son, James died during his father's lifetime.

There were a short time ago several Costellos living on Amherst Island. A geography of Frontenac & Lennox & Addington Counties, 1878, shows Luke Costello occupying lot 6, North Shore Concession. There is also the following in a Directory of the County of Hastings by Mackenzie Bowell, 1860 --

1. Patrick Costello living on the east side of Pinnacle St., Belleville.
2. John Costello, clerk, with D. C. Curtis of Belleville.

2. Katherine Costello, married Henry Richardson of Fredericksburg, 10 Mar., 1801. She is mentioned as of Ernesttown. Church records of the Rev. John McDowell show this marriage as well as the following births--

1. Anna born or bapt. 5 Jan., 1802.
2. Tamar born or bapt 18 Jan., 1804.
3. Kathreen born or bapt 26 Feb., 1806.

There was present at their marriage William Richardson, James Richardson and Jane Schemerhorn.

(See note under Rebecca Piercy regarding this family).

1. Rebecca who married James Bradshaw of Fredericksburg 24 Apr., 1804 in the presence of James Castelloe, Lovina Curtis, Samuel Brownson and Alexander McPherson.

   The church records of the Rev. John McDowell give this marriage as well as the birth of their eldest child--

   1. Katreen born or bapt 27 Feb., 1805.

   There is much confusion at present as to the children of Rebecca Piercy and Katherine Costello. Those given above are the only ones which are authentic. There are, however others. One family contains these-- James, Michael and Asa, while the other has Michael, Philip and Jacob. This last family also had Asa. Thus it is seen that each family had an Asa and a Michael. The two Michaels are very different types and were distinguished by their characteristics. One Michael was a wild harum scarum fellow and received the cognomen, "Fighting Mike" while the second being a quieter boy though given to expressing an opinion was called "Opinion Mike". One of these boys married Rachel Atchison (This was Fighting Mike) while "Opinion Mike" married a Miss Brown. "Opinion Mike" was with his grandmother Piercy when she was Killed. "Fighting Mike" became embroiled in the Rebellion of 1837 and because of his rebel tendencies was sent to Van Diemens' Land for life. The Asa Richardson, born 1811 or 1812 and died May 17, 1898 and buried in the Bethany-Macdonald Cemetery in without doubt the son of one of these women.

   Further knowledge of these families is lacking.

2. -------- a daughter married a Carter.

   Her daughter Sarah married William Huff or Hough.

3. -------- married a Forshee.
4. -------- married a Murdoff.

   She had two boys

   1. Daniel.
   2. Peter.

   These three girls may have as surnames either Costello or Piercy. At present practically nothing is known of them or their descendants.

Dear Sir;

Thank you for your letter. Savage's Genealogy of New England before 1700 gives:

" John Percy of Gloucester m 1673 Jane w of Philip Stonwood.

Dormoduke of Salem 1637 from Sandwich, Co Kent, a Tailor with wife Mary.

Robert of New London bought a home there in 1678. "

This might interest you -

John Percy emigrated from England in 1832 with wife Elizabeth Young and eleven children. Surviving are Rev. W. of Stouffville; James of Toronto; W. G. of Buffalo and Uriah of Pickering... from " Past Years in Pickering"... here in the L. A. Library

I also dug up the fact that the first Percy was aide, and friend of William the Conqueror, who landed with him and then married a Saxon lady. Another Percy was killed at Jerusalem during the Crusades

At the same time I wrote you before I mailed the Anderson material - in a large brown manila envelope. Perhaps you had better check with your postmaster, and I will do the same here to see what became of it. If we do not find it, I will send you another one.

Most sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Kelty:

I have your letter dated 17 May last, including additional information relative to the Percy Family.

The information that I supplied you about the war service of John Percy, or Piercy, came from vol. 161 and vol. 162 of the Haldimand Papers in the Public Archives of Canada, Ottawa, Ont. In the former vol. the name is spelled Pearcy and in the latter Percey. I very much doubt if you will find the name of John Anderson in these papers, for these reasons

1. I have been through them and would most likely have noted the name since I am interested in it.
2. A John Anderson, whom I believe to have settled in Fredericksburgh, made application for land in the Midland District (the one in which Fredericksburgh is located), asking land for himself and family as a military claimant and stating service in the Royal Artillery under General Phillips. Also that he had fled to Nova Scotia, not coming to Ontario until 1795.

It is very probable that John Percy was descended from the family of the Earls of Percy & Dukes of Northumberland. I, however, have nothing on that line. As far as I know, nothing further is known of John Percy except what I have sent you. The Haldimand Papers show that a Daniel Piercy joined a Loyalist Regiment, the Queen's Loyal Rangers, recruited largely in Vermont, in the summer of 1777, but was discharged for one reason or another between 25 June and 22 August, 1777. This regiment was badly decimated at the Battle of Bennington and was split up shortly after. A volume of Documentary History of the State of New York (Albany, N.Y) State, dealing with the New Hampshire Grants (now Vermont) mentions a Daniel Perce. In Nov., 1766 he signed a petition, dated New England, regarding these Grants. About the same time he signed a document, giving Power of Attorney to certain other partners to act for him. These are likely one and the same person, and likely he was discharged because he was unfit to fight, being too old. By the same token he came from New England and was perhaps the father of John Percy, the Loyalist. The only other mention of persons by this name in U.S. of Revolutionary period were those I must have referred to before, previous letter

Census of 1790

I know nothing of Lucy Shaw, aged 71, living with Thomas & Hannah Anderson. It is possible that she was related to the Andersons, certainly it is not a Percy name.

There might be some mention of Percys in the New England Genealogical register or some such work. If such are available to you, take a good look. We do not have these things in Canada, and if you find something, let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir;

Thank you so much for the material. Could you tell me what material you examined to find out about the Jessup Corps - especially the " His commander noted in his comments....." for I would like to see if John Anderson is noted in this volume. Also what material has the ." his name is found as soldier to end of Rev....."

Some time when you have a free moment, I would like to hear the story of Jay Gould and Mrs. Adam Fullerton. That is the kind of thing I am seeking - not dry names and dates, but the stories that make ancestors alive as people.

We have the family Bible of John P Anderson and in it Mary Anne Percy Anderson wrote that she is a direct descendent of the Earl of Percy. I am curious to work out this particular lineage especially.

The 1861 census of Fredricksburgh lists Thomas and Hannah Anderson; with Thomas Percy, age 17; Stephen age 15; and Emma J, age 12. There is also Lucy Shaw, age 71. Who do you suppose she was?

The 1871 census gives with Thomas and Hannah - Thomas Percy age 26 - Irish - born in Ontario - E. Methodist - farmer; and Emma - age 21.

Emma Percy became Emma Shaeffer Brown of Stockton, Calif. (inland from San Francisco). She had 2 daughters and a son Floyd Brown, a policeman 6' 7' tall. In 1938 I visited their home, but do not know anything of them since.

Mrs. Maud Carscallen of Anderson (Fredricksburgh) wrote me in Feb..." My father's name was Thomas Anderson Percy, and he was adopted by Thomas Anderson at the age of 4, at the death of his father Michael Percy. He died in 1901 and is buried at Morven." She lives next door to the Anderson Church, and lives in the old Percy house next to it, I understand. The above is all she knows about the family.

Would you be willing to trade the story of the Post's for the story of the Gardiners'.. He was one of the first presiding Elders of the Methodist Church in Canada; coming from Ireland in 1827 to Port Hope.

I will check the New Hampshire material in Los Angeles, and give you any other material I find on the Percy's.

Sincerely yours,

Elaine Goold Kelty

THE PERCY FAMILY.

The name of this family is spelled variously Percy, Piercy, Pearcy in the old records in this country. Piercy and Percy are found most frequently, that of Piercy appearing to have been the older spelling. This family now refers to itself as Percy.

John Piercy, evidently a native of or a resident of New Hampshire, served as a private in Capt. John Heron's Company, Col. Hazen's Regiment, according to Gen. Orders, Sep. 6, 1778. An officer of the British Army persuaded him to cast in his lot with them in 1781, because his name is found from that time to the close of the American Revolution as a soldier in Jessup's Loyal Rangers, a Loyalist organization. In July of the latter year he crossed into Canada and joined his regiment at Lachine. He was serving there in Oct., 1782, and his commanding officer [illegible] in his command as that of 6 months previously, in the British Army, but had served faithfully since 1776. In July, 1783, Percy was with his regiment at Isle aux Noix, at the foot of Lake Champlain, and in Oct., 1783, he was at Ft. John's, Quebec.

John Percy was discharged from the Army on 24 Dec., 1783, when his regiment was disbanded. He remained in barracks until the following spring, when he took part in the first settlement of Ontario, taking up his bounty land in Ameliatown Township, in June, 1784. He eventually removed to Camden, a neighboring township, where he died before June, 1814. His burial place is unknown.

Some time between Oct., 1783 and June, 1784, he married Katherine Ryan, widow of James Costello, a soldier in Jessup's Loyal Rangers. The first record of James and Katherine Costello that I have found is the baptismal certificate of their second son, James, who was baptized at Quebec Aug 8, 1779, having been born the day previous. James, the father, was one of the brave defenders of Quebec against the American Army under Montgomery and Arnold. He later joined Jessup's Rangers and died in the spring of 1783 at Montreal. Their three children were: John, Katherine and James. A record of Loyalist refugees in Canada in 1781 reveals that Katherine (Ryan) Costello was 25 years of age.

As was said before, John Percy married the widow Costello between Oct., 1783 and June, 1784. In the latter month John is shown as having a wife and two children, the latter undoubtedly being Katherine and James, his stepchildren. Between their marriage and John's death about 1811, they had four children:

1. Rebecca.
2. John.
3. Michael Ryan.
4. Annie.

After the death of the second husband, Katherine (Ryan) Percy continued to live on the home farm near Newburgh, Ontario. She was killed in 1823 at the Five Mile House, five miles west of Kingston, Ontario, when a run-away team upset a barrel of salt on her.

Of the children of the two families, I give these brief notices:

1. John Costello, a mariner on the Great Lakes, drew land at Niagara. There is no other record of him.
2. Katherine Costello married Henry Richardson 10 March, 1801.
3. James Costello, born 7 Aug., 1779, married Christeen, daughter of Simon Earhart. There are no male descendants.
4. Rebecca Percy married James Bradshaw Richardson, brother of Henry.

5. John, born 1789. See below.
6. Annie, married first, Peter Fornee. He died, and she re-married 6 Sept., 1810, George Mordoff.
7. Michael Ryan, born 1798, married about 1819 Annie Martin. He was a veteran of the war of 1812. They had eight daughters and five sons. All the girls but one were school teachers and all married and raised big families.

John Percy, Jun., born 1789, married Aug., 1815, Jane Post. John was a farmer on lots 9 and 10, concession 7, Ernestown Township. He was a very thrifty, successful man, and in later life was a Justice of the Peace. His wife died Nov. 8, 1845, aged 52 years. John later married the Widow Spencer and retired to Belleville where he died June 12, 1874, aged 85 years. They lie buried in the Methodist Church cemetery at Switzerville, Ontario.

Their children were:

1. Hannah, born 1814; died Jan. 14, 1889, aged 74 years. She and her husband are buried in Morven Cemetery, five miles north of Bath. Her husband was Thomas Anderson. He died Mar. 18, 1888, aged 75 years, 9 months. They had no children, but adopted three children of Hannah's brother, Michael Percy.
2. Michael, born about 1817. On his marriage about 1840 his father bought him a farm in Thurlow Township, where he and his wife, Sarah Foblin settled. In 1854, one Saturday night Michael was taken suddenly ill and died within a few hours, leaving a family of five or six small children, the eldest being twelve. Two branches of this family give conflicting stories of the children. One says four sons and a daughter; the other says four boys and two girls. I am inclined to believe the latter. These children were:
   1. John Albert, born 1842. He went to Calif. in 1863, returned to Canada in 1867 and married Hannah M. Miller. They removed to Illinois and eventually to Calif. He died Aug. 30, 1935 at Alameda, in retirement after a long life as a farmer. He left two children: Mrs. S.G.Moyes, whose husband ran a hardware business in San Fransisco, and a son, John A., Jr., an attorney in San Fransisco.
   2. John A. was raised by his uncle John, on the farm in Switzerville.
   3. Thomas.)
   4. Stephen.) Raised by their Aunt Hannah and Uncle Thomas Anderson.
   5. Emma.)
   6. George) Stayed with their mother when she remarried.
   7. A daughter who also stayed with mother when she remarried.

   Excuse it, please.
3. Eliza Jane, who died May 17, 1853, aged 24 years & six months, of T.B.
4. Mary Anne, born 22 May, 1819, died July 17, 1862. She married John P. Anderson, brother of Thomas. I know nothing more of this family than that they lie buried in Morven Cemetery.
5. Peter Perry, born June 14, 1827, died June 30, 1882. He never married. He studied medicine with Dr.Moore, of Picton, Ont., then attended McGill University, Montreal, from which he graduated in 1848. He commenced practice in Brighton, where he remained until 1853, when he was forced to retire because of his health. He resumed the practice of Medicine in 1865 at Delta, Ont., later removing to Lansdowne, where he resided until his death.

6. John, born June, 1824. He inherited the homestead, and married Mary Ann Daly. He died Dec. 13, 187-, leaving a small family. His son, L. E. Percy, was an insurance agent in Brantford, Ont. A daughter, Mrs. Anan Fullerton, of Brockville, Ont., was one of the most beautiful women of any age. She almost became the bride of Jay Gould, which is a story in itself.
7. Henry Anson, born Oct. 1828, and died of T.B. Apr. 17, 1850, while he was training as a clerkit in Kingston, Ontario.
8. Sarah, born 1826, died Oct. 21, 1846, presumably of T.B.
9. Lucy, died Sept. 11, 1834, aged 1 year and 5 months.

It is my belief that the Percies, Costellos and Lyons came from the Irish settlement in New Hampshire, where they settled about 1710. In the census of New Hampshire in 1790 there are several families by these names all living within twenty-five miles of each other. If my reconstruction is correct, James Costello was an American soldier who participated in the Battle of Quebec in 1759. He doubtless remained there after the peace, or returned there in later years. These two families, Costellos and Lyons, were Roman Catholics. Their son, James, was baptized in the Cathedral at Quebec. Then, John Percy, coming from New Hampshire also, met the Costello widow and married her. There also was a Mr. Piercy in Peterboro, N.H. in 1790. Likewise, there was a Peter Percy living in London Town, Rockingham County, N.Y.

Dear Sir;

I enclose a check for $ 5.00. Please send me what you have on the Percy family. I am more interested in their personal lives and characteristics than in simply names and dates, so please include anything you have of that nature.

I am raising four boys, so I don't know when I can get the other things typed for you, but it will be along in due time.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

West Concord, N. H.

Dear Mrs. Thompson:

On a recent trip to your beautiful State I made a hurried visit to the State Library, seeking information relative to an ancestral line. As I had little time, I was given your name as one who was accustomed and willing to undertake search for such as I. On this assumption, I am requesting that you review the following data and advise me whether there is any advisability of continuing my investigation into my family's past.

1. John Piercy, Pearcy or Percy was my 2nd great grandfather. He came to this region in 1784 as one of its original settlers. I have information that he left either Vermont or N. H. in 1781, and that he had had service in the American Forces during the Revolutionary War. I believe him to be the 'John Piercy, pte., member of Capt. John Heron's Co., Col. Hazen's Regt.(General Orders, Sept. 8, 1778). N. H. State Papers No. 17.'
2. N. H. State Papers, Vol. XXX, also shows 'Richard Bourke Piercy, Doctor to 29th Regt. of Foot in the Town of Peterboro.'
3. The Census of 1790 for N. H. gives the following:
   Peter Percy, Sandown Town, Rockingham County,
   Charles Percy ditto ditto .

This John Piercy married Catherine (Ryan) Costello at Montreal, Canada, in 1784. Catherine Ryan's first husband, James Costello, was in the defending force at the American attempt to capture Quebec in 1775. His son, James, was born there in 1779. James Costello died in Montreal in 1782, and his widow married John Piercy, as shown above.

By a coincidence I find that the names Costello and Ryan appear in the N. H. Census of 1790, and I am anxious to discover if these three persons, John Piercy, James Costello and Catherine Ryan, can be connected with those families appearing in the Census of 1790. (I might also point out that a Daniel Percy was in Montreal in 1777, as well as John and Richard Costello in the year 1780). Census of 1790 reveals the following:

1 John Costalow, Effingham Town, Strafford County.
2 Micheal Ryan, Durham Town, Strafford County.
3. Michael Ryan married Elizabeth, widow of Joseph Burnham after 1798 (Hist. of Durham, N. H.

If there any vital records extant, will you please scan the V. R. of Durham, Effingham, Sandown and Peterboro for references to these families, and forward me the results of your search. I shall be willing to pay at the usual hourly rates for this type of search. I shall also be very grateful for any information you may be able to discover.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario, Canada.

John, elder son of John Percy U.E. & ~~[illegible]~~ Catharine Regan
Costello, was b. 1789, according to his headstone in Switzerville Cemetery, possibly on lot 39 conc 2 Camden Township. He applied for and was granted 200 acres on 25 Feb., 1812, as son of U.E. This grant of land was in lot 17 concession 4 of the Township of Bastard, Leeds County. He, with his brother Michael, also received crown grant of the west half of lot 3, Concession 2 on 5 May 1823. ~~This land was relinquished~~

He married between 22 July + 5 Sept 1813, Jane Post.
Lewis Edward Percy, John's grandson, writes, "I have heard my grandfather tell many a time of landing at Kingston where I think he was married, and when he got to Bath he traded one hundred acres of the farm that I later owned (E½ lot 9, all lot 10 conc. 7 Ernestown) for a saddle for his wife and the two of them rode out to sell the farm and some other property that he had acquired at Bowers Mill (now known as Napanee Mills)(sic?).
He eventually settled on the farm in Ernestown, where he lived until his family was grown & his wife had died. He then remarried Dec 18, 1848 Mrs. Eleanor (Richards) Spencer, widow, and removed to Napanee. Here he became a miller and Justice of the Peace. He died June 12, 1874, aged 85, and was buried beside his first wife in the family plot in Switzerville Cemetery. His wife, Jane Post, died Nov. 3, 1845, aged 52 years, of a lingering illness. The following are his children, all born by his first marriage:

1. Michael, birth date unknown see below.
2. Hannah, b. 1814 died Jan. 14, 1889 aged 74 yrs. She married Thomas Anderson (d. Mar. 15, 1888 aged 75 yrs 9 months) son of Joshua Anderson + Laurel Dibble (see Lutheran Church Records). 4. Peter Perry, M.D. born June 14, 1823, died June 30, 1882 - was disappointed in love. He never married. Is buried in Mowen Cemetery. History of Leeds & Grenville (in Kingston Public Library) under heading of Lansdowne, states:
"P. P. Percy, M.D., was born at Napanee, Ont., He studied medicine with Dr. Moore of Picton and graduated at McGill College, Montreal, in 1848. He commenced the practice of his profession at Brighton, where he remained until 1853, when ill health compelled his retirement from active service. In 1865 he resumed practice at Delta, from which place he removed to Lansdowne in 1865 where he has since resided.
Family tradition reveals that he was sent to the barn when his son's daughter, Ida, was born in 1856. Why, is hard to understand. During the typhus fever epidemic in 1856 he was in great demand and travelled by horseback so much that he wore his mare's hoofs to the quicks.

5. John b. June 1824 died Dec. 19, 1878 (see below)

He married (1 Mar 13, 1848) Mary Ann Daly, daughter of (1 the late) Lewis Daly and Mercy Everetts, grand daughter of Peter Everett and great grand daughter of Capt Peter Everett U.E. His will dated 6 Nov 1878 was probated 27 Jan 1879. His son Edward, in a letter dated Jan 19, 1928, states that John had three children of whom he and a sister were alive. The inscriptions in Newbury cemetery indicate a fourth child. His wife died at age of 60 yrs and 8 months

4. Edna or Sarah, a very beautiful girl, who went to live with her brother Ed in Newburg after her father's death. Here she met Adam Fullerton, a druggist's apprentice whom she eventually married. About 1883 she met the railway magnate, Jay Gould, at a celebration in Napanee. He became enamored of her and when he left Napanee in his private railway car Edna and her aunt, Mrs. Cooper, accompanied him. Shortly after their arrival in New York the Gould's announced their approaching marriage. This alarmed her brother Ed and Adam Fullerton who hurried to New York to stop it if

Edna was being forced into it. The Gouldes refused their admission, but Adam made contact with Edna by a special delivery letter. She met one evening and eloped, finally returning to Canada. Adam Fullerton finally opened a drug store in Brockville which still bears the name. Adam and Edna died about 1933-39 and are buried in Napanee although to date which cemetery is not known. They left an only daughter

1. Rita, a graduate nurse, who married a banker in Chicago named Barker. He is dead, and Rita, now a widow, resided in Brockville, where the Fullerton store is operated by a manager. ~~to present~~ Charles A. Beattie. Her present address is unknown. Rita was born about 1884-1892 of Alameda, Calif.

(Hough Scrap Book).

IN MEMORIAM.

John A. Percy, Who Died at his Home in Alameda, Cal., Aug 30th, 1905.

Salinas, Cal., Index.

"He who serves his own generation by the will of God will be of service to the generation following."

This may be said of our beloved brother and friend, John A. Percy, who passed away at his home in Alameda, August 30th, 1905, after an illness of eleven days.

In the year 1842, near the village of Belleville, Canada, John A. Percy was born, the oldest son of Michael and Sarah Roblin Percy. When his son was twelve years of age the father died, leaving a family of five children, four sons and one daughter. Thus in his early years, the cares of life fell upon his young shoulders, which he bravely took up, helping his mother in every way to care for the younger members of the family. At the age of twenty-one Mr. Percy came to California, spending several years mining both in this state and Nevada.

Returning to Canada in 1867 he was united in marriage to the schoolmate of his boyhood days, Hannah M. Miller, eldest daughter of the late Allen Miller, of Ernesttown. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Percy removed to Illinois, where Mr. Percy purchased a large tract of land and built a home, but, owing to the ill health of his family, was compelled to seek other climate, so in the year 1873 they returned to California, where one year was spent in the vicinity of Sacramento and Oakland; then they came to Salinas Valley, where they resided for many years. Twelve years ago Mr. and Mrs. Percy retired from active farming and moved to their beautiful home in Alameda, that they might be near their two children, Mrs. E. G. Moyes, whose husband is interested in the hardware business in San Fransisco, and John A. Percy, Jr., an attorney of San Francisco. Wherever Mr. Percy has lived he gained and held the esteem and respect of his fellow men. Practical and business-like though he was, abreast of every reform and full of wisdom in everyday affairs, he was yet so high-minded, ~~and full of wisdom~~ so absolutely true to his highest convictions, tender toward all who needed help, abounding in a sure and generous sympathy. The entire community will feel his loss, as his genial sympathetic nature made all feel in ~~his~~ him they had a friend. Mr. Percy was a prominent earnest worker in the Methodist Episcopal Church for many years. A kind, loving husband; a tender, affectionate father; he leaves to mourn their irreparable loss a wife, one daughter and one son; also two brothers, George and Stephen Percy, of Canada, and one sister, Mrs. George Shaffer, of Stockton, Cal., besides a host of loving relatives and friends.

On Aug. 30th, surrounded by his family and friends, Mr. Percy was laid to rest in the beautiful Mountain View cemetery, Oakland. His last requien will be sunf by the winds of the great Pacific, as they sweep across his quiet resting place. But he, the true man, lies not there. He now lives where all mysteries are solved--where those things that look so strange and contradictory to us here are in the light of the great love of our Heavenly Father made plain. There he awaits us and may we not hope one day, when wearied with the toils, cares and pleasures of life, to meet him there ~~again~~ and again be cheered and strengthened as we have so often been here, by the touch of his loving hand.

My dear Sir:

I heve just received your letter from the Post Office, in which I am very much interested.

At the present time I cannot go very far back in the family History, but I will give you the Information I can at the present, and will follow up with more later on.

My Grandfather, John Percy, as I have always understood it, was born in England, and his wife, (whom I do not remember) was born in Ireland. He had two brothers, Peter and Michael. He had a large family, one of whome was John, my Father, but in my next letter I will go into this matter fully with you.

My Father John, just had three Children, my Sister and myself being the only two living.

My Grandfather died at our home, at Newburgh, at the age of 84 years, but my Grandmother died quite young, and I do not recall having ever seen her.

I remember Uncle Michael very well, he had a large family, (in Bellrock), one of whom I believe is your Mother.

I believe on second thought that there was another brother, and it occurs to me that his name was Michael, so that in this case the Michael of Verona, or Bellrock, must have been only a cousin of our Grandfather. The other brother in Thurlow, died quite young and left 5 or 6 children, John Albert, who lived with my father until he was married; Thomas, Stephen & Emma, was brought up by an Uncle, Thomas Anderson of Fredericksburg, the other two, George Percy and a younger daughter remained with the Mother, when she remarried.

Thomas Percy died a few years ago. John Albert went to California years ago and died in Alemedia California. His only son is a very prominent lawyer in SanFrancisco.

The other brother George Percy, was in a Whole-Sale Business in Rochester, and retired some years ago, very wealthy. He has one daughter, who is married and living in Rochester.

I note that you ask where the change took place of the name Peircy or Percy. I think this must have been my Grandfather made this change, for I find a number of old Deeds of his as Piercy, while the deeds of later dates all bear the name of Percy.

I will check over the family Records from my Grandfather's Bible, (which I have in my possession) and any further and more detailed information that I can give you, I will do so in the very near future.

I am writing above just to let you know that I have received your letter, and am interested in same.

I am indeed very glad to know you are taking up this matter, and wish you every success.

Sincerely yours,

L. E. Percy

Dear Doctor Burleigh

Just a note to-day to acknowledge receipt of yours letter and further information re my Ancestors.

Since my last letter to you, I found myself very busy at the close of the year and did not have the time to look in matters the way I wished, the last week or so I have been laid off with a severe cold and this is the first afternoon in the office for some days. I hope however to be able to give you a little further information from my Grandfather down, but I do not think I will be able to furnish much the other way, my Grand father's Johnson says "old bible" did not have any record of the family, I think it must have been my Great Grand father that married the Cowgrake widow with the children for I have heard my Grand father tell many a time of landing in Kingston where I think he was married, and when he got to Bath he traded One Hundred Acres

Among the list of names you gave me the family's of David Pangle and Joseph Taylor both lived in Newburgh and I knew all the members of the two family's well

I just got a card from Saint Petersburg Florida from George W. Percy a first cousin and a son of (I think) Michael Percy, anyway he lived and died in Thurlow, back of Belleville and if you could write him he might be able to fill in some of the gaps.

I will forward Geo W. Percy address in St. Petersburg, (His home address is Rochester N.Y.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed please find certified copy of the desired document.

According to the "Repertoire du Clergé Canadien", by Tanguay, published in 1893 - the leading work of that nature - the only priests by the name of "Ryan", who have exercised, are:

1° - RYAN, Jeremiah, ordeened on August 22nd 1847. Left on the 19th. Sept. 1850. Nothing else mentioned in that book. I have translated the French word "parti" by "left", but do not know exactly just what this means. I am inclined to believe that he returned to Ireland.

2° - RYAN, Timothy, Oblat, born in Ireland, ordeened in 1863, arrived in Ottawa Dec. 25th same year; superior of Ottawa College in 1864, left for England in 1867.

Regretting my inhability to give you more information on that subject, I am, dear Sir,

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:—

Thank you for your prompt reply to my enquiry. I am enclosing note for sixty-two cents for certificate, plus postage both ways, for a copy of birth + baptismal certificate of James, son of James + Catherine Costello, baptized 7 Aug., 1779 (with witnesses + other persons present)

Could you tell me where I may enquire to ascertain if Father Michael Ryan served as Priest in the Province of Quebec. There must be some place where this information can be obtained.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 26th ult. was duly received, but I was laid up with a severe attack of grippe and only returned to the office today.

I had researches made in the Archives from 1790 to 1800 and they have no trace of the birth of Michael Ryan Piercy or Percy. in the Catholic records. They had record of births in the Protestant register of one or more persons around that date, but none bearing the Christian name of MICHAEL.

Researches were also made re Marie Aurelie Cloutier, 1820/30 but no trace either. I think you would have much difficulty in tracing her as the Province is divided into 24 districts, and as you have no idea of where she was born it would be next to impossible to trace her date of birth. The district of Quebec comprises the counties of Quebec, Levis, Lotbeniere and Portneuf. There are usually 4 or 5 counties in each district.

The cost of these two researches is $2.00. I am sorry the results were not satisfactory.

Yours very truly,

D. Gosney/xpe
